

WEEKLY COMMENTARY

26.02.2021

U.S. Equities

Investors' focus this week was on the tragedy in the Ukraine. As Russian troops moved across the border early in the week stocks, particularly in Europe, came under pressure. However, reports that Russia was in favor of talks with Ukrainian leadership helped stocks recover some of their losses and turn positive toward end of the week. The Dow Jones slipped 0.1% on the week to 34,058.75, the S&P 500 rose 0.8% to 4,384.65 and the Nasdaq Composite climbed 1.1% to 13,694.62.

Treasuries

The 10- and 30- year Treasury bonds yields recorded their biggest weekly gains since February fourth, as the conflict in the Ukraine drove crude prices higher raising concerns inflation will continue to accelerate. The 10-year yield climbed 5.4 basis points, the 2-year jumped 11.6 basis points and the 30-year rose 4.5 basis points for the week.

Dollar

As expected, the ICE dollar index moved higher this past week as geopolitical tensions pushed investors into the safety of the dollar.

Gold

The price of gold fell 0.6% for the week after reaching its highest level since September of 2020. Better than expected US economic data released over the week may have calmed traders and led to some profit taking.

Crude Oil

Oil prices briefly traded above $100 a barrel last week but backed off that level on Friday. For the week, West Texas Intermediate crude finished 1.5% higher and Brent rose by 4.7%.
